

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please note that the days shown below are from the new 2026-2027 Daily Prayer Guide.

Callan & Leah (Day 10)

Please pray for our travel as we head overseas arriving in Central Asia in mid-August. Pray for our student visa to be finalised soon. Pray that we would each walk well with Jesus and with each other in our marriage.

Allan & Marven (Day 1)

Allan will attend the Asia Theological Association Academic Leadership Seminar in Indonesia from 21st – 24th July. The seminar topic is “Designing Integrated Curriculum for Holistic Formation.” More than 80 participants are expected from over 45 Bible and theological colleges across 15 Asian countries. Allan will facilitate one day of sessions and is thankful for this opportunity to connect with colleagues in person again. While Allan is in Indonesia, Marven will be in Singapore visiting friends and directees, most of whom she usually meets with on Zoom. Please pray for good conversations, helpful outcomes, and safe, smooth, stress-free travel.

Ester (Day 28)

Pray for wisdom, concentration and good eyesight as I assist in finishing the typesetting of the Yiddish Old Testament transliteration / diglot. I am currently typesetting Jeremiah (last book not yet finished as part of Nevi'im - prophets). Pray for the Yiddish translator, Phil, who is caring for his wife, Linda, who recently had transplant surgery and for Mark who will start his role as ED of Wycliffe NZ in August. Praise God for good health and your invaluable prayers and support.

Bill & Angela (Day 15)

Our short-term mission team went well, we hope to send out a report soon! We have been encouraged by three new families starting to attend our Sunday meetings and a new midweek Bible study for mothers of the outreach kids. Please pray for all these people who are just beginning to seek a relationship with the Lord. We were saddened by a young woman, young in her faith, who got offended and has not been back. There are others too who we see their faith growing cold. Pray as our team faithfully serves and disciples our church.

Benjamin & Rebekah (Day 4)

Please be praying for us. We are still trying to find housing in Bangkok, but it is very difficult to find the right place. Pray that God will give us wisdom if we need to broaden the search and peace as we trust in His timing.

Tim & Angela (Day 13)

Pray for pathways to peace in our region. The oscillating between ceasefire and conflict is deflating even for us. We know it's much more so for those directly impacted. Pray for our remaining month before school restarts as we have some rest of sorts - 'farm-sitting' at our landlord's large permaculture gardens and minding the animals. We are seeking to clarify our commitments for the coming year during this time also. Please remember to lift up those 'neighbours' who choose to follow Jesus, that they would continue to know His presence and provision, and for unity.

Francisco & Joanna (Day 16)

We are very thankful to have arrived safely back in Paraguay and are re-adjusting to the culture here. We are very appreciative of those in NZ who have committed to support us as we prepare for a new season of ministry. Please pray for one of our youth who visited us today asking for help. Pray that she will be strong against the voices that pose as “Christian” but are in fact coming from the enemy. Pray that she will begin reading her Bible again, and that the true God will guide her and heal her mind.

Andrew & Greer (Day 6)

Please continue to pray for Rehoboth, that the children have an open heart to hear the gospel and trust in Jesus. Also, pray for God's guidance and rule over our next steps as we plan our return to India.

Andrew & Patrizia (Day 8)

On Monday Manoj had his first post radiotherapy MRI. He is due to have another one towards the end of July.

This first one came back all clear, no cancer in that part of the body.

Outreach to Punjabis and Africans and Bangladeshis in our area continues. Please pray for the seed sown during the last twelve days or so. Thanks.

Bruce & Robin (Day 27)

I wanted to share a delightful experience I've been having at my part-time job as the principal of an international tertiary college. The diverse backgrounds of my staff, coming from the various countries we serve in, have allowed me the unique opportunity to engage in meaningful conversations over lunches and dinners. It truly feels like a blessing as I witness God's spirit unfolding in these interactions. I kindly ask for your prayer that these discussions bear fruit and foster growth within our community. Thank you for your prayer support.

Ashley (Day 10)

I visited Nico after sensing something was wrong in her voice messages. After searching for her, I found her working with her sister-in-law, who again reacted angrily. Nico seemed very withdrawn and unlike herself, but when I spoke firmly of God's love, presence, and her worth, she briefly responded. Her family continues to pressure her and undermine her faith. Please pray that Nico would be strengthened, protected, and know God's love and light in the darkness surrounding her household.

Drew & Kirsty (Day 8)

We praise God for the new house, which came about in a miraculous way, and hope to use it to host more friends. Please pray for the logistics and finances of our upcoming move, for the kids as they begin at a new school, and for deepening relationships and open hearts among old friends and new contacts.

David & Enless (Day 7)

Thank you for praying for peace, harmony and quality care at Mukinge Hospital. Please also pray for Enless' safety as she travels to the Copperbelt to see family, for Daniel's School Sports Day on Saturday, for David to remain in the centre of God's will, and for protection from all evil.

Craig & Darlene (Day 1)

We're very happy to be all together as a family in France! Our son, Josiah, will marry Lixie on Saturday 18th. Please pray for our son, Isaac. He has just arrived in France and is very unwell. Isaac went to hospital by ambulance on Monday night and they are conducting tests to try and work out what is wrong. Pray for strength for Isaac's wife, Jade, and our whole family as we navigate this challenging time. After the wedding, Joel & Melody will travel with us for just over a week. Please pray for Melody as she then travels by herself to India (28th) to visit the girls' home at Rehoboth Ministries. Pray that her time with the girls would be special and meaningful and for good health and safety.

Brian & Vicky (Day 28)

In the Old Covenant, names often carried special meaning. Lamech named his son Noah, meaning "comfort," saying, "This same shall comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands" (Genesis 5:29). More than anything, our Jewish friends need comfort, and we pray that the Comforter will use the Jewish Scriptures to point them to Messiah Jesus and bring conviction of sin. We deeply value your prayer support. Please pray for Vicky, who is now completely blind and training for a guide dog, for the Jewish community as they face acts of antisemitism, and for Yosef, a valued contact who keeps in touch and is always keen to visit us.

MOVEMENTS

Simon & Ann (Day 3)

Depart 27th July

Kevin & Helen (Day 19)

Return 27th July

Joanne (Day 17)

Departs 24th September
Returns 9th November

IN SYMPATHY

Please remember Murray Grindlay and family in your prayers. Murray's wife, Sylvia, went to be with her Lord on Thursday, 9th July. Murray & Sylvia were missionaries with GLO in Zambia from 1988 to 1994 mainly involved in Bible teaching and lecturing at the Bible Training Centre in Ndola. Since Zambia they have been involved in ministry throughout New Zealand.

CONGRATULATIONS

Let's rejoice with Pascal & Renee (Day 3) on the safe arrival of baby Malo born last week.
